

I support the allocation of 446.0-446.1 for use by visitors from Europe and the United Kingdom with Personal Mobile Radio (PMR 446) transceivers. Two reasons: It allows for the possibility of hearing a visitor who may be in trouble; and I see no major interference problems that would occur with such low output power.